Due to the inability to form Ukraine as a stable, developed and prosperous country, many young people join the ranks of people without a job. These are mainly active, dynamic and educated young people. By January 1, 2010 the total number of Ukrainian unemployed young people was 530.3 thousand, or 27.5% of all unemployed people of working age (ILO methodology). Among them almost one in nine lost his/her job for economic reasons [1].

According to the State Employment Service the number of unemployed people is growing, every day 9–12 thousand people join the ranks of people without a job. These are mainly active, dynamic and educated young people. By January 1, 2010 the total number of Ukrainian unemployed young people (up to 35 years) made up 31.4%. It should be taken into account that in recent years the proportion of youth in our country’s population’s structure has significantly decreased. High unemployment rate is an evidence of instability in the economy and has its negative social economic consequences for the country [1].

To reduce the level of unemployment among young people can contribute the following activities: strengthening of state bodies activities according to the young people employment; the desire to create the real expectations about employment in young professionals; the main task of the employment services should be the implementation of effective measures to increase the chances of young people to integrate into the structure of labor market, decent foothold on it to become competitive; improving the competitiveness of labor market of certain categories of young people (young people without work experience, young women with children, people with disabilities, etc.).
the development of training systems, training of young workers [2].

In conclusion we can say that in today’s social and economic conditions, young people face particular difficulties in finding work. It is needed to take the proposed set of public measures that should be aimed at creating the legal, economic and organizational conditions and guarantees the right to work for young men in Ukraine.
